Audit Your AI Subscriptions

The keep / cut / right-size worksheet that recovers hundreds a month from tools you forgot you pay for.

The hidden leak

Subscriptions accumulate silently. Most people pay for tools they don't use — and skip the ones that earn. This audit fixes both.

Step 1 — Find them all

- ☐ Search your email for 'receipt' and 'your subscription'
- ☐ Check your purchases/payments category
- ☐ List every recurring charge + amount

Step 2 — Judge each one

For each tool ask: does it serve an ACTIVE workstream right now? If not, it's a cut.

- KEEP — tied to active revenue or content
- CUT — inactive workstream, or you can rebuild it
- RIGHT-SIZE — needed, but on the wrong (too-high) tier
- DON'T START — the shiny tool you don't actually need

RULE OF THUMB

One tool per job. Lean into free/native first. Your most-used tool is rarely the waste — the forgotten one is.

Step 3 — Cancel cleanly

Email a clear cancellation + refund request. If they stall, dispute the charge with your card. You're never held hostage.
