

CONTENT & POSTING

The Caption Swipe File

Plug-and-play caption templates and hooks that stop the scroll - one set for every platform, plus a prompt to generate more.

The first line is the whole game.

- 1 Open with a hook: tension, surprise, or a bold claim.
- 2 Keep the middle short - one idea, white space.
- 3 End with a question that invites a one-line reply.
- 4 Match tone to platform; keep the CTA the same everywhere.
- 5 Comments are warm leads - the question is the engine.

That's the whole system. The rest of this guide walks each step, with copy-paste prompts you can run in one tap.

The hook library

- 'Most [people] do X. Here's what I do instead.'
- 'You don't need X. You need Y.'
- 'The honest reason I [did the thing].'
- '[Surprising number] - and the one thing nobody mentions.'
- 'I almost didn't post this.'

The deep walkthrough

1

Build the skeleton

Hook, value, question. Every time.

PROMPT · CAPTION FROM SKELETON

Write a caption about [TOPIC] using this skeleton: line 1 = a scroll-stopping hook; middle = the value in short lines; last line = a question that drives replies. Give me 3 versions with different hooks.

2

Match the platform

Same idea, right shape.

PROMPT · RESHAPE PER PLATFORM

Take this caption: [PASTE]. Reshape it for Facebook (warm), Instagram/TikTok (punchy + hashtags), LinkedIn (credible), and X (short). Keep the hook and the closing question.

THE CTA RULE

End with the SAME ask across platforms. Train your audience to reply - that's where leads come from.
