

BRAND IN A DAY

Brand Yourself in a Day

Pick a mark, a palette, and a voice that make you instantly recognizable - in an afternoon, with prompts to decide each.

A brand isn't a logo - it's repetition.

- 1 Pick ONE signature mark that's truly yours.
- 2 Choose three colors: a dark, a light, one accent.
- 3 Define your voice: 5 phrases, your tone, your always/never.
- 4 Use all three on everything until people know it's you.
- 5 The test: with no name on it, would they know it's yours?

That's the whole system. The rest of this guide walks each step, with copy-paste prompts you can run in one tap.

The deep walkthrough

1

Find your mark

One recognizable element beats a fancy logo.

PROMPT · FIND MY SIGNATURE MARK

Ask me about my look, my story, and what people associate with me. Then propose 3 possible 'signature marks' (an object, shape, or motif) I could put on everything to become instantly recognizable. Recommend one and why.

Constraints make a brand cohesive.

PROMPT · PALETTE + VOICE

Help me lock a simple brand. Suggest a 3-color palette (dark, light, one accent) that fits [DESCRIBE VIBE], and interview me to capture my voice: 5 phrases I'd actually say, my tone, and 3 'always' and 3 'never' rules.

THE TEST

If someone saw your post with no name on it, would they know it's you? That's a brand.
