

BRAND IN A DAY

Position Yourself as the AI Person

Become the obvious choice in your circle for AI - without being the loudest or the most technical. With positioning prompts.

You don't need to be the expert. You need the 1000 hours they haven't done.

- 1 Position on TIME, not tech - you buy back their hours.
- 2 Show, don't claim: post the boring wins you actually built.
- 3 Be the anti-hype voice: AI isn't magic, it's a tool that does real work.
- 4 Invite the reply: 'what task eats your week?'
- 5 Honesty is the trust play that converts.

That's the whole system. The rest of this guide walks each step, with copy-paste prompts you can run in one tap.
